Reports the Senate

BILL TO PROVIDE ONE FOR UTAH

The Idaho Legislature Still in Session—The Body of Young Hampton Shipped to Salt Lake

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—The House Judiciary committee, through Mr. Buchanan of New Jersey, to-day reported the Senate bill to provide for the creation of a fourth judicial district in the territory of Utah with an amendment, the reason for which is shown by the report, which says: "That the rapid increase of population in the northern portion of that territory makes the creation of another judicial district highly desirable. The bill does not add to the number of judges, but simply creates another district and confers power upon the supreme court of that territory to assign judges to the several districts. The bill as it passed the Senate provides that the governor and legislative assembly of the territory shall establish the new district. It appears, however, that the legislative assembly will not convene until the year 1892. This will delay the matter for nearly one year. For this reason your committee recommend the bill be amended by striking out in the first section the words 'legislative assembly' and in lieu thereof insert 'supreme court.' This would leave the rearrangement of the judicial districts to the governor and the supreme court of the territory."

The Idaho Legislature.

BOISE, Ida., Feb. 19.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—This forenoon, after passing a concurrent resolution of respect to the late General Sherman, both houses adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

The bill creating the county of Canaan out of a portion of Ada is before the house on its third reading. This afternoon the senate and house met in joint session and decided to meet as usual on Saturday morning, demand their pay and mandamus the state auditor before the supreme court in order to get a decision as to whether this is a regular session of sixty days or an unlimited extra session. Senators Gray and Wing and Representatives Price and Green were appointed a committee to have charge of the case. The prevalent opinion is that the court will hold the session to be an unlimited one at $5 per day. Should that be the decision, the most urgent business will be attended to and a recess taken until some time in December, as the members are determined that no bills shall be railroaded through on important subjects.

South Omaha Stock Yards.
OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 19.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—The South Omaha stock yards and packing houses to-day decided to withdraw from the South Omaha Live Stock exchange. The exchange refused to reduce commissions for western stock raisers, and they appeared to the packing interest. The decision of the packers means the death of the exchange and the triumph of stock dealers.

Young Hampton's Body Shipped.
KETCHUM, Idaho, Feb. 19.—[Special to THE HERALD.]—On last Tuesday morning a party consisting of twenty-one men and thirty horses to break the road, started for the Trapper mine at Boulder, to bring down the bodies of B. Y. Hampton, Jr., and Charles Spicers, the victims of the late snowslide. They arrived in Ketchum on their return with the bodies this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, after enduring great hardships on account of the weather. General sympathy was manifested by the people of Ketchum on the arrival of the brave men who had courageously made the fatiguing journey and brought in the remains. The body of Brig. Y. Hampton was hastily prepared for shipment and put on board the train, which was waiting, to be sent to Salt Lake for interment. His father who had been here waiting accompanied the remains. Mr. Hampton's widow and children left for Salt Lake yesterday.

Charles Spicers' funeral will be held here to-morrow. There are a great many miners in town waiting and many more will be in to-morrow to attend his funeral as he was a general favorite.

A. E. Hyde, manager of the Trapper group of mines who came up from Salt Lake with B. Y. Hampton, Jr., will remain here a day or two for the purpose of arranging for further work at the mine which is in a promising condition and the prospects for the future very flattering. Manager Hyde will leave everything in good working order.

The Rivers Around Pittsburgh Falling.

Illinois Steel Company.
CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—The stockholders of the Illinois Steel company have voted to increase the capital stock from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000. It is stated the proceeds from the new stock will be used in greatly enlarging the plant and that only a portion of the stock is to be put on the market.

The strike at the company's works inaugurated last December, was ended to-day. The 2,500 employees accepted the sliding scale proposed by M. A. Walker and for the first time in nearly three months the South Chicago plant showed signs of life. Work here will be governed by the price of steel. When the price of steel goes up the wages of the men will be increased, and when the price goes down, wages will be decreased correspondingly.

In the Senate.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The Senate bill to increase the pension of Brigadier-General Powell to $72 a month passed.

Ingalls, who was occupying the Vice-President's chair to-day as presiding officer, resigned the office in a short speech in which he spoke of the honor the Senate had conferred upon him in electing him to that position. His resignation will take effect on the election of his successor.

After Ingalls' remarks, the Indian depredations bill was taken up and Edmunds' motion to strike out section 8, which provides that no claim by Indians shall be allowed by the court on the unsupported testimony of an Indian, was agreed to.

SHERMAN'S FUNERAL

New York is Draped in Mourning
for the Occasion.

PREPARATIONS IN ST. LOUIS

For the Interment—Father Sherman, the General's Son, Settles the Question of the Warrior's Religious Belief.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—New York is to-day paying every possible tribute of respect to the memory of General Sherman. The dawn of his funeral day opened bright and clear.

The courts remained closed. The exchanges closed at noon, and general business was brought almost to a standstill, and all who could do so ceased their daily occupations to do honor to the dead soldier.

At an early hour people began to assemble in the street opposite the residence of General Sherman. From almost every house along the street the American flag floated at half-mast. There were a few visitors in the early hours of the morning. Only the most intimate friends and a few old soldiers were admitted, and the latter were obliged to show certificates that they served in the army. Rev. Thomas Sherman, the son whose arrival was so anxiously awaited, arrived at the house at 1:30 this morning. Just after taking an early breakfast this morning with the family he took his last look at the remains of his father.

A few minutes before 11 o'clock a large funeral procession started from the house on the West Point cadets. The shield was 9 feet in height and 3 feet broad, and made of white and black immortelles and call lilies. At 11 o'clock Secretaries Elihu Root, Proctor and Knapp, Generals O'Brien, Homer and Ewing arrived at the house. President Harrison will not look upon the remains of the general. The funeral will be held at his residence this morning, but President Harrison kindly preferred to keep his remembrance of the general while alive. He did not wish to see him in death when their associations had been so warm and genial.

At noon every doorstep along Seventy-first street was crowded with interested spectators, and the windows were filled with expectant faces. About 12:30 o'clock a caisson draped in black and drawn by four horses, was drawn up in front of the Sherman house. The horses were mounted by regulars, and an army officer was in charge. Behind the caisson was an orderly leading a black charger which bore the military trappings of the general. A black velvet covering almost hid the horse from view, but the boots and saddle were plainly conspicuous.

Services of prayer began at noon and were over at 12:30. Prayers were read by Rev. Father Sherman. Close to the caisson stood the body of General Sherman. In the front parlor were all the members of the family, Secretary Blaine and wife and Mr. Danroagh. Father Sherman was assisted by Rev. Father Taylor and two other priests. Father Sherman again read the simple services read from the Scriptures and the "Miserere" from Monks' Breviary. Before the arrival of the hour for the funeral procession, the caissons carrying prominent officials, both military and civil, arrived at the house. Among the visitors were George W. Childs, A. J. Drexel, Hiram Hinchcock, Chauncey M. Depew, ex-Presidents Cleveland, Hayes, Joseph C. Hoar, Rear-Admiral Braine, General Schofield and Governors Patterson and Tilden. SHERMAN'S FUNERAL

for the Occasion.

PREPARATIONS IN ST. LOUIS

For the Interment—Father Sherman, the General's Son, Settles the Question of the Warrior's Religious Belief.

Feb. 19.—Governor Francis: Will send thirty regiments and one battery of artillery, about fifteen hundred men and my military staff. I cannot go, much to my regret. My adjutant, M. L. Hawkins, is now in St. Louis. Please give him instructions.

Officers of the army of the Tennessee will meet this evening to take action in regard to the meeting of their comrades from distant points who will arrive Saturday morning. This society will have the post of honor in the second division and will be under the command of Major Morrill.

Along the line of march from the start to the finish was one grand crush, and walking in the streets traveled almost impossible. It appeared as if every resident of New York and surrounding cities had turned out to gaze upon the caisson that contained the remains of the great general. Along the line of Central park on Fifty-ninth street crowds of people were seated and at the circle where the column was to assume definite shape, the sea of people was simply indescribable.

All along Fifth avenue, a mass of people lined the sidewalks and steps and windows and balconies on the thoroughfares. The weather was cold and disagreeable, but there was no complaining.
